

Academic Year 2010/2011 - Courses offered in English

First Semester

An Introduction to English Sociolinguistics
(Prof. Giovanna Carloni - Dept. Foreign Languages)

Borderline identities and multiculturalism in contemporary Anglo-American society and literature.
(Prof. Gabriella Morisco, Dept of Foreign Languages)

English in Corporate Presentations and Communication.
(Prof. John Taylor, Dept of Foreign Languages)

Places for Plays: English Theatre and Drama from the Market Place to The Globe and Blackfriars (Chester Noah's Flood, Everyman, Dr Faustus, The Tempest)
(Prof. Roberta Mullini - Dept. Foreign Languages)

Second Semester

Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL)
(Prof. Flora Sisti - Dept. Foreign Languages)

English in Corporate Presentations and Communication and Cultural Diversity
(Prof. John Taylor, Dept of Foreign Languages)

Shakespeare's Venetian Plays: The Merchant of Venice and Othello
(Prof. Roberta Mullini - Dept. Foreign Languages)

The pragmatics of dialogue and conversation: examples from Harold Pinter's The Dumb Waiter (and a note on punctuation)
(Prof. Roberta Mullini - Dept. Foreign Languages)