

Learning Different Ways

European Third Sector Summer School
11th – 14th July 2005, Urbino – Italy

“Learning Different Ways” is a summer school which offers a great opportunity – through experience sharing, knowledge exchanges and open debates – to 50 third sector chief executives and leaders, for advanced learning on cross-cutting issues relating to not for profit organizations.

This course is an important first step towards increasing knowledge and information exchanges between third sector organizations across the European Union.

The registration fee will include accommodation, meals, participation in all workshops and activities.
